

Predicts Red Purge Of Tito Will Backfire

Yugo Paper Says War Threat Seen

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Dec. 6 (AP)—Yugoslavia's official newspaper predicted today the Cominform's demand for a world Marxist crusade against Yugoslavia will boomerang.

Borba, Communist organ of Marshal Tito's government, said in a four-column editorial the communist information bureau's latest manifesto completed the bankruptcy of the so-called Soviet peace policy, and marked the collapse of its wishful reliance on an internal Yugoslav revolt.

The editorial was the first detailed reaction there to the resolutions adopted in a meeting of the cominform in Hungary and published just a week ago. The resolutions laid it on the line that it is the "international duty" of Communists and workers everywhere to help overthrow the Tito regime.

Monstrous Plot

Borba said this was a monstrous plot to make the world's workers the "tools of the non-peaceloving policy of the Soviet government."

The cominform's resolution of June, 1948, throwing Tito out of the organization was at least disguised as "some kind of Marxist document," Borba said, but the latest one dropped such pretenses and resembled the "sentence of some court martial."

The paper noted the 1948 resolution expressed confidence Yugoslavia's Communist party would overthrow the Tito leadership, but that the latest appealed to "revolutionary elements outside the party" in Yugoslavia to carry out cominform objectives.

Nesly Rumors

"Until recently, Cominform propaganda was using nesly rumors about some liberation war, about overthrowing the people's authorities, partisan units and so forth," said Borba, but now the cominform has been forced to "demolish its alleged partisan units" and "make up petty rumors about illegal meetings."

The paper said the "provocateurs of a new war on both sides have received very precious material" from the whole attack.

Tells People Of State To Awaken To Needs Of Roads

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 6 (AP)—A state official said today that "a public awakening" to Illinois road needs would speed up work "crying to be done."

Charles P. Casey, public works and buildings director, said the apathy of the public is the greatest obstacle to extension and rehabilitation of the state's highway system.

He told the 43rd annual convention of the associated general contractors of Illinois that people have been too involved in their own problems to "observe the havoc wrought by the inadequacy of our highway system."

"Too many are inclined to think of roads and streets simply as conveniences which just happen," he continued. He added that the highway industry had a "big job" to inform the public of road requirements.

The prevailing level of state revenue for road construction is "hardly a drop in the bucket" compared with what expert opinion agrees is needed, Casey said. He put spending needs at over $200,000,000 annually.

Uncle Arrested On Sex Charges As Girl Kills Self

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 6 (AP)—Two days after a war-orphaned Alsatian girl of 15 hanged herself to end a brooding despair, her middle-aged American uncle was indicted today on sex charges involving her, the niece he brought here for a new life.

A middlesex county grand jury indicted Fred F. Bruckman, 51, a partner in a small photostat laboratory, on charges of incest and carnal abuse of Elizabeth M. Bruckman.

Her body, a clothesline looped thrice around her neck, was found hanging from the landing of a lonely firewatchers' tower at Waltham last Sunday.

The tall, thin-faced Bruckman was held for arraignment Friday. A few hours earlier he pleaded innocent to the same charges in Waltham district court and was jailed in lieu of $25,000 bail.

District Attorney George Thompson said Bruckman admitted orally that he had sex relations with the girl, who was his brother's daughter.

Report Arrest Of Air Smugglers Of Aliens

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—Attorney General McGrath announced today that federal agents have seized operators of an elusive Havana-to-Miami air shuttle who allegedly smuggled aliens into this country at $500 to $800 a head.

Several of the aliens apparently came from behind the Soviet Iron Curtain, the announcement said. Authorities here and in Miami said the two alleged ring leaders and their wives were arrested in the Florida "Gold Coast" city yesterday after a long vigil by immigration agents.

The two men were nabbed at 4 a.m. as they returned from a night club jaunt.

McGrath reported that Justice department operatives are now rounding up 25 aliens illegally slipped in through the Miami gateway from Cuba since September. Three have already been picked up in New York City.

The Attorney General named Gaylord Saxton, 26, a former Michigan state college student, and Charles Cramton, 28, both of Grand Rapids, Mich., as operators of the illegal air transit service.

They were taken into custody in Miami rooming house and charged with Alien smuggling.

Immigration border patrolmen also arrested the two men's wives, booked as Mary Jean Saxton and Ruth Lucille Cramton, and charged them with aiding their husbands in the operation.

Conviction on the smuggling charge would carry a possible sentence of five years in prison plus $2,000 fine for each alien illegally brought into the United States.

In Miami, district immigration director William A. Carmichael told of his agents lying in wait at airports for the Will-O-Wisp smuggler plane which always eluded them. He said the plane always flew through the night from Cuba and landed in this country at dawn.

McGrath said this was a monstrous plot to make the world's workers the "tools of the non-peaceloving policy of the Soviet government."

The cominform's resolution of June, 1948, throwing Tito out of the organization was at least disguised as "some kind of Marxist document," Borba said, but the latest one dropped such pretenses and resembled the "sentence of some court martial."

The paper noted the 1948 resolution expressed confidence Yugoslavia's Communist party would overthrow the Tito leadership, but that the latest appealed to "revolutionary elements outside the party" in Yugoslavia to carry out cominform objectives.

"Until recently, Cominform propaganda was using nesly rumors about some liberation war, about overthrowing the people's authorities, partisan units and so forth," said Borba, but now the cominform has been forced to "demolish its alleged partisan units" and "make up petty rumors about illegal meetings."

The paper said the "provocateurs of a new war on both sides have received very precious material" from the whole attack.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (AP)—The body of Lewis W. Friedrich, 29, which he tried to will to a medical school, will be buried in his family's New York cemetery plot.

Friedrich was found dead Sunday in a North Clark street hotel room. Beside his body, police found two notes. One to his mother assured her that decent funeral arrangements would be made in Chicago. The other, addressed to the police, said he was "flat broke" and asked that his body be turned over to Northwestern University medical school.

His sister, Barbara of New York City, told a coroner's jury today she would see that he has a proper funeral. She said her mother, Agnes, 65, is ill and has not been informed of Lewis' death.

No finding as to cause of death was made today. The inquest was continued to Dec. 23. Meanwhile analysis will be made of his vital organs and a blue pill found near the body.

Miss Friedrich told the coroner's jury her brother was wounded while serving as an air force gunner in the Aleutians during the war. She said he had been nervous and jobless for several months.

Brannan Declares He Will Not 'Gag' Men In Ag Dept.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 6 (AP)—Secretary Brannan declared today he will neither "gag nor muzzle" the agriculture department's farmer-committeemen to keep them from expressing views on farm policies.

The committeemen help administer government production control and price support programs.

Instead, Brannan said, the committeemen are invited to "continue working for improvements by submitting recommendations to me through the production and marketing administrator and by working with the Congress."

The secretary's remarks were made in a talk prepared for an annual conference of the Production and Marketing Administration, attended by farmer committeemen from the various states.

Brannan apparently had in mind sharp criticism leveled against a similar PMA conference at St. Louis last year by the American Farm Bureau Federation. The conference adopted resolutions opposing flexible price supports favored by the Farm Bureau.

Couple, Married 40 Years, Divorced

Chicago, Dec. 6 (AP)—A couple was divorced today after 40 years of marriage and 15 children.

Mrs. Jennie Belle Hughes was granted a divorce from Nathan Hughes, a truck driver. Alleging cruelty, she claimed he beat her three times in the last three years.

They were married July 7, 1909, in Glasgow, Ky.

Eleven of their 15 children are living. Mrs. Hughes consented to her husband's having custody of the two youngest, 11 and 16 years old. She waived alimony.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (AP)—Police said today a 74-year-old father has made an oral statement that he beat his 38-year-old son to death after a quarrel.

Centralia, Ill., Dec. 6 (AP)—A posted layoff of about 200 Illinois Central railroad shop men here was cancelled today. The notice was posted several days ago.

The layoffs were to have started tomorrow night. Master Mechanic J. M. Jefferies said the orders to continue working came from the Chicago office of the I. C. The reason given for the original posting was that work had declined due to the coal strike.

Ward And Staff Should Have Left China Yesterday

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—Angus Ward and his American consulate staff presumably ended today their long isolation in Communist-held Mukden, Manchuria.

After more than a year under the guns of guards, Ward notified the state department that his group of 20 persons was leaving by special train at 3:45 a. m. Wednesday (1:45 p. m., CST today) for the North China port city of Tientsin.

This information, relayed from Peiping, was expected to be the last until the party's arrival at Tientsin two to four days hence. Ward's only means of outside communication has been by phone to Consul General O. Edmund Clubb at Peiping.

At Taku Bar, near Tientsin, three American merchant ships are expected to be available to take the entire party to freedom at Yokohama, Japan. Present plans are to use only one vessel, probably the Lakeland Victory, due at Taku from Kobe, Japan on Friday.

Sixteen of those leaving are Americans and four are alien Europeans, the state department was informed in the final message forwarded by Clubb. All were ordered "expelled" by the Mukden municipal authorities within 48 hours beginning Monday, as an aftermath of the jailing of Ward and four members of his staff.

ALL PLANES SAFE

Geneva, Dec. 6 (AP)—Swiss air said tonight all of its planes are safe and accounted for.

It made the statement after being advised that the British Press association had received reports that a Swiss airliner had crashed today between Lucerne, Switzerland and Nice, France.

Robert R. Young Enters Coal Dispute As Mediator

Explains Atomic Power Too Great To Be Used For Autos, Gadgets

Pittsburgh, Dec. 6 (AP)—If you're waiting for an atomic powered automobile or sewing machine you are doomed to disappointment.

Dr. Hafstad spoke before the atomic energy symposium of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers holding its 42nd annual convention here.

He said that although large electric power plants and atomic power reactors are of more nearly comparable size, cheap electric power from atomic sources is not assured. A reactor is a kind of atomic oven. Articles dropped into it become radioactive.

Dr. Hafstad declared: "The money the consumer pays for electricity goes largely to cover costs of distribution. Relatively, the cost of the coal or other fuel is small. Therefore, since atomic energy promises further reduction in fuel costs only, it is clear that even successful power producing reactors could bring little, if any immediate reduction in the cost of electric power to the consumer."

The supply of high grade uranium ore, the basic fuel for reactors, is definitely limited, Dr. Hafstad said. He estimated only 7.10 of one percent is of the fissionable form, U-235.

One of the first concerns of atom scientists, he continued, is to make use of the relatively large amount of non-fissionable U-238 with a "breeder" type of reactor.

"Unless the breeding of new fuel becomes successful, the probability of civilian use of atomic power is dim," he declared. "The difficulties we face are clearly large."

"Even if the future holds nothing less dismal than the continued production of atom bombs, it behooves this nation to keep in the forefront of reactor technology."

New York, Dec. 6 (AP)—U. S. hard coal operators asked the United Mine Workers today to restore the five-day work week in the anthracite fields and the union indicated that it hasn't made up its mind.

U. M. W. Vice-President Thomas Kennedy avoided giving a direct answer to reporters who asked if the hard coal miners knew whether they would work next Thursday, Kennedy said.

Talks Resume Today

Ralph E. Taggart, chief negotiator for the operators, said talks would resume tomorrow at 10 a. m. (CST). Kennedy indicated that the question is still open when he told newsmen at one point: "Well, the three-day schedule would not be effective until after tomorrow, would it?"

Of the talks in general, Lewis' chief deputy said only: "We had a general discussion of everything—as far as we could go—pertaining to the contract."

Kennedy headed a 10-man union group in the negotiations. And Taggart, president of the Philadelphia Coal & Iron Company, led the group representing 10 hard coal operators. Chairman of C. & O. Ry.

Robert R. Young, chairman of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, entered the coal wage dispute today with an announcement that he was carrying on talks with prominent soft coal operators.

His meetings became known just before the UMW committee met with hard coal operators.

John L. Lewis, UMW president, did not attend either session.

A spokesman for Young, who also is chairman of the Allegheny Coal Company, announced that Young had entered the soft coal dispute as a voluntary intermediary.

The announcement said Young met at his offices here with two leading soft coal operators' representatives—George Love, president of the Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal Company, and Joseph P. Routh, chairman of the board of the Pittston Company of New York.

There were reports that Young planned a later meeting at the undisclosed place with UMW representatives, but there was no indication such a session had taken place.

Young, in a statement on his part in the conferences, said: "The Chesapeake & Ohio, the nation's largest bituminous coal origin railroad, has become increasingly concerned about work stoppages in the coal fields."

Owners Ask 5-Day Week For Hard Coal

San Francisco, Dec. 6 (AP)—Confident that he can set a new record for girdling the globe by air, while using regular commercial plane flights, Tom Lamphier, Jr., left Honolulu today for San Francisco.

He expects to reach New York at 10:50 a. m. (CST) tomorrow.

That would set a new record of 4 days 23 hours and 50 minutes around the world. The accepted record now is 6 days and 3 hours and 20 minutes.

Lamphier left New York last Friday by Pan American Airways and traveled with that line until he reached Honolulu at 4:25 a. m. CST today.

Dr. Andy Hall, 81, Named 'Doctor Of The Year' By AMA

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—A 81-year-old country doctor who likes to recall feats of kitchen table surgery in the horse-and-buggy days of more than half a century ago was named "Doctor of the Year" today.

He is Dr. Andy Hall of Mount Vernon, Ill., a witty man who still keeps an 8-to-5 o'clock office day and estimates that a good 40 percent of his work for nearly 60 years was done free.

The award, with a gold medal, was bestowed by the American Medical association for the "outstanding general practitioner" of 1949.

Just a month and two days short of his 85th birthday, Dr. Hall chuckled softly when asked the secret of his long life.

"I've lived a fairly temperate, regular life. I never drank whiskey for any consequence. I guess the most I ever drank was when I had measles when I was 10 years old. I drink beer occasionally. I never smoked and I don't chew."

Solons Say Brazil Will Have More Coffee Next Year

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—Senators turned up some relaxing news today for coffee drinkers who have been worrying about where their next cup was coming from.

Brazil, the world's main coffee producer, is expected to harvest a bigger crop next year than it did this year.

This was the testimony of a Senate agriculture subcommittee received from Albert M. Prosterman, a commerce department commodity specialist. It was based on a survey by the U. S. embassy in Brazil.

Also cheering to coffee drinkers was a drop in coffee futures prices in New York. Prices of most of the futures contracts on the coffee and sugar exchange there declined two cents a pound—the maximum daily limit.

A canvass of chain and independent stores also showed that retail buying of coffee has fallen a bit below normal in New York City during the last 10 days.

Coffee prices started to shoot up recently as reports spread that a drought in Brazil foreshadowed a short 1950 crop of coffee beans. The Senate subcommittee, with Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) as chairman, decided to look into the situation.

Jordan Testifies Secret Radar Equipment Stolen

New York, Dec. 6 (AP)—A war-time expeditor of U. S. lend-lease supplies to Russia said today the Soviets obtained top secret American radar equipment by a ruse as well as the atomic materials he had discussed previously.

George Racey Jordan, former air force major, asserted the Russians managed to get a plane with the equipment to their country after he had balked them by ripping the radar out of four other aircraft.

Starts New Probe

Jordan, who has stoked the fires of a new congressional probe into vital military material allegedly sent to Russia in the war, held a news conference at his business office here to discuss his role further.

The radar apparatus was the only item he added to his previous list of secret material which he has charged went to the Soviet Union.

However, he said the equipment was so important that Gen. H. H. Arnold, war-time head of the army air force, "would just as soon have given away his right arm as the radar."

Jordan refused to add anything to his statements of last Friday and yesterday about uranium and other materials used in making atom bombs which he said went to Russia through the Great Falls, Mont., air base. Jordan was an expeditor at the base.

Shouldn't Reveal Secret Men

He said that Chairman John Wood (D-Ga) of the House committee on un-American activities had asked him not to reveal the names of the mysterious "Mr. X" and "Mr. Y" drawn into the atomic shipments investigation.

These are two officials of the administration of the late President Roosevelt who allegedly have been connected with the shipments.

The former air force major said he first spotted the radar in a C-47 scheduled to be turned over to the Russians. The equipment was new to him, he said, and he made a phone call about it to his superior officer, a Colonel Gitzinger, at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio.

"Good, good," Jordan said Gitzinger exclaimed. "Don't tell me they got radar equipment. Rip it out."

The former expeditor said he tore the apparatus out of the C-47 and three other planes.

But a fifth plane with similar equipment and carrying Maj. Gen. A. I. Velyev, chief of the Russian purchasing mission, took off from Washington, by-passed Great Falls, and made it to the Soviet Union, Jordan said. It did so by dumping at the end of the Washington runway all baggage and unnecessary equipment, Jordan said.

Open New Stretch Of Paving On 66

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 6 (AP)—A seven-mile stretch of new paving on U. S. Route 66 from Farmersville south will be opened to motorists tomorrow, the state highway division announced today.

The project completes 21 miles of new paving between Glenarm and the junction with Illinois Route 48. The work cost $2,295,643.

It is part of a general program to reconstruct into a four-lane highway the road between Springfield and East St. Louis. The new pavement is two lane and will eventually carry southbound traffic only when an additional two lane northbound strip is built.

A new bridge south of Farmersville remains to be completed and is under construction.

William Henderson Named Winner Of Student Contest

Pittsburgh, Dec. 6 (AP)—William E. Henderson, 1949 University of Illinois co-valdictorian, today was announced as winner of the year's national student contest problem of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

The award was announced at the annual meeting here. The contest involves a problem in plant design set up by a committee of men from the industry. This year's problem was a process for recovery of chlorine gas given off by a by-product during manufacture of DDT. Solution required three weeks of work.

Henderson's home is at Avon, Ill., and he now is at the University of Michigan. Another 1949 Illinois graduate, James W. Crawford of Galesburg, Ill., now at the University of California, took third place.

Accuses Russians Of Using Trick To Deceive Him

Washington, Dec. 6 (AP)—Senators accused Democratic Governor Stevenson of attempting to purge them. In a statement handed to reporters by one of their number, Senator Arthur J. Bidwill (R-River Forest), the GOP solons said "we accept this challenge."

"The development was an outgrowth of a meeting attended by 24 GOP senators, presumably to size up prospects for retaining control of the upper legislative chamber in the 1950 elections.

The session was called by Bidwill, who is Republican senate caucus chairman.

The purge talk apparently referred to the governor's remark last week that he hopes to have Democratic control in both House and Senate to improve chances for enactment of his legislative program at the 1951 session.

AEC Calls For US Help To End Strike In Oak Ridge Plant

Oak Ridge, Tenn., Dec. 6 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission put in a quick call for federal help today to end a wildcat walkout which has idled some 2,000 construction workers on AEC projects in this atomic city.

The unexplained walkout started quietly and unexpectedly yesterday when 250 workers on the $66,000,000 gaseous diffusion plant (K-29) left their jobs. The number of idle spiraled upward like a chain-reaction today.

The AEC appealed to the National Labor Relations Board and the U. S. conciliation service to help. It sought to put a quick end to the trouble which is delaying work on the high-priority K-29 plant and other atomic installations.

R. W. Cook, manager of Oak Ridge operations of the AEC, said two NLRB officials are en route here by plane.

Gordon Moiesworth, assistant to the AEC manager, said the walkout involves around 2,000 construction employees but does not include any workers producing fissionable materials used in A-bombs or other atomic projects.

Belvidere Morals Court Hears Of Wild Beer Party

Belvidere, Ill., Dec. 6 (AP)—A wild beer party attended by young girls was followed by intimacies between a 13 year old bobby soxer and a man in a nearby field, a jury hearing the first of Belvidere's morals cases was told today.

A circuit court jury is hearing the case of George Frost, 34, accused of assault with intent to rape. A total of 13 men and nine girls, 13 to 15 years old, are involved in the Belvidere charges in which the men are accused of meeting the girls in an ice cream parlor, buying them sodas and sundaes, and then taking them to neighborhood field and haymows.

Clara Jane Grelee, a slim 13 year old brunette, hesitantly testified she was intimate with Frost in a field which they reached after climbing a fence.

Police Chief Fred Stone and three teen-aged girls testified there was a big beer party in a house the night of Oct. 8, when the alleged intimacy between Miss Grelee and Frost occurred.

Chemist Names Fuel Substitutes

New Haven, Conn. —(AP)— There are three possible substitutes for the world's dwindling resources of coal, oil, and gas, says Farrington Daniels, professor of chemistry at the University of Wisconsin. One is atomic power, which likely will come slowly. Another is using the sun's heat for a continuing source of energy, when solar engines and other devices are developed. A third is using nature's process of photosynthesis to increase food and fuel production. Progress in understanding photosynthesis is most promising, he told the Yale chapter of the Society of Sigma XI.

What It Means: The Supreme Court's Liberalism Backfires

By Clarke Beach

Washington — The civil-rights-minded Supreme Court's determined effort to protect the rights of prisoners has brought it a peck of trouble. Many of its decisions in the past 11 years have provided convicts with new legal arguments to secure writs of habeas corpus. When such writs are granted, the prisoner or his attorney is given a new hearing in the lower court. In rare instances the court, after reviewing the record of the case, grants a new trial. In a few cases, prisoners are set free if the prosecuting attorney decides that the state no longer has a good legal case against the convicted man.

So writs of habeas corpus represent most prisoners' sole hope for a speedy release. When the Supreme Court became more and more critical of lower courts or local police officials who it felt violated a prisoner's constitutional rights, the prisoners heard about it and promptly took advantage of it.

Chief Justice Vinson said recently that the Supreme Court in its last term received 455 petitions from state or federal prisoners who claimed there was something illegal about their convictions or their treatment in jail. Only 22 such petitions were received by the high court in 1950.

The prisoners often act on their own, without help of a lawyer. They frequently write informal, penciled notes to the court. Vinson said that 98 out of 100 of them have little or no legal merit. Yet all that are received have to be given a number and full consideration. Nearly all of them are turned down but a few each term receive an open hearing.

The habeas corpus epidemic started after the Johnson versus Zervest decision in 1938, when the court found that the trial court had not given the prisoner his constitutional right to legal counsel. The McNabb case, in 1943, provided new hope for writ-hungry prisoners. In it the court decided the convicts had been held too long between the time of arrest and arraignment. The last big habeas corpus push came after the decision in the Tony Marino case in 1947. That too involved the issue of lack of proper legal counsel.

Vinson says the burden on the Supreme Court could be relieved if the states and lower courts would see that prisoners always got a habeas corpus hearing when it was justified. But the lower courts have found their work load increased as much as that of the Supreme Court.

Judge Louis E. Goodman, of the U. S. District Court in San Francisco, in 1947 told how Alcatraz prisoners keep that court constantly busy. Between 1937 and 1947 there were 368 petitions filed by 180 inmates.

Federal lawyers refer to the Alcatraz petitioners as "the Alcatraz law school." In many prisons the convicts take correspondence courses in law. In some cities there are prisoners who act as their own attorneys and make headlines coming into court with new petitions. It gives them a trip downtown.

Judge Goodman said the habeas corpus petitions had become "a penitentiary racket." He was plainly critical of the Supreme Court for opening up new fields in which prisoners could abuse the privilege of habeas corpus.

CACTUS IS A STICKLER FOR CUSTOMS

Sydney —(AP)—Mrs. Mabel Whitney kept a cactus growing at her Wembley, London, house all through World War II. Bombs blew tiles off the roof, and made a mess of the garden. But the cactus survived.

Mrs. Whitney, her husband N. J. Whitney, and their daughter Joyce decided to move to Palmerston North, New Zealand. They left London by plane and took a cutting of their pet cactus with them. But they had to say goodbye to their cactus in Sydney. Customs men destroyed the cutting as a noxious plant.

Cactus—prickly pear here—caused big damage to Australian farming and grazing land by its rapid spread.

During World War II, some U. S. military manuals pointed out that men stranded in the wilderness might get food by catching and eating insects.

Bingo Is The Password

Chicago —(AP)—The forces of the law in this town crack down from time to time on various kinds of gambling. The latest target is bingo. A tip came to the Shakespeare Ace, police station that sounded suspicious. A big bunch of men had gathered in a hall. There was a peephole in the door. A guard would not admit anybody who didn't know the password.

Several squads drove to the address, burst into the crowded hall, and found themselves in the midst of a lodge meeting.

At holiday times turkey may mean a big meal, but in radio slang it's a program that has been a complete failure.

Doctors' Center Saves Lives

Denver —(AP)—"My wife is running from a fever and I want a doctor. Can you help me?" The caller was a man from Texas. Mrs. Lorene Davoren A tip came to the Shakespeare Ace, police station that sounded suspicious. A big bunch of men had gathered in a hall. There was a peephole in the door. A guard would not admit anybody who didn't know the password.

The doctor went to the house and found the woman had polio. She was rushed to a hospital. Another day or two and she might have died.

The incident is typical of the 40 calls the center averages each day. Set up by the doctors a year ago, the center received 300 calls the first month. Now about 1,200 persons call each month.

Say Clean Plowing
Choice Weapon
Against Cornborer

Urbana—Cheapest and most effective way to destroy over-wintering corn borers is to plow them under.

Agricultural engineers at the Illinois College of Agriculture and entomologists of the Illinois Natural History Survey have expressed their concern this fall over the great number of newly plowed fields which show much crop residue and corn stalks still on the top of the ground.

Dr. George C. Decker, entomologist with the Illinois Natural History Survey, says that farmers must remember that corn borers can easily live through the winter in corn stalks which are left above the surface of the ground.

On the other hand, if your plow is in good condition, has the necessary attachments, and you plow clean with it, few borers will live to produce a new generation.

A. R. Ayers, engineer in the Department of Agricultural Engineering, says to get good trash coverage, you should use a moldboard plow with a bottom measuring at least 14 inches. The moldboard must scour readily and be shaped to suit the soil and the speed at which it is pulled. The coulter must be large enough and sharp enough to cut clear through all trash.

Wires or metal shields can be used to hold the trash down while it is being turned under. Wire should be passed through the coulter yoke and twisted tightly around the shank. Ten feet of No. 9 or No. 7 wire per bottom is usually enough. It's not too late if your fall plowing is already finished. Just don't neglect to get all that trash and old stalks under the ground before the middle of May next spring.

THAT'S YOUR BUDGET NUDGING YOU

TAKE THIS, FOR EXAMPLE—A roomy 6-passenger 4-door Sedan of 115 hp. Ideal for a family car. Available with Dynaflo Drive as optional equipment at extra cost.

LOOK this tidy Buick over—and you may hear a still small voice saying "go ahead—get it!"

If so, don't think it's mere ambition urging you to splurge.

The simple fact is that this lively fashion setter is not only a car straight from your rosiest dreams, but a brawny straight-eight Buick that practically any budget can handle!

Match prices—and you'll find that many a six costs you more than this does.

Boil it down to costs per pound—and poundage in a car often means more durability and longer life as well as smoother riding—and you'll find this one right down among the so-called lowest priced cars.

Figure your investment over the extra years you'll be happy in a Buick—check the used-car listings and see how Buicks hang onto their resale value—and you'll see the wisdom in buying a better car to begin with.

The extra value of Buick's own Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight power.

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

The bump-smothering gentleness of soft coil springs on all wheels, both fore and aft.

The roominess of Buick's king-size interiors—the lightness of Buick controls—the new parking and garaging ease of traffic-handly size—

And that completely different and distinguished look of Buick's tapered fenders, sleek jet-plane lines and the sturdy, shock-deflecting protection of that bold new front-end design.

So go ahead and listen to that still small voice. It's your budget, nudging you to go get the actual figures and replace guesses with facts.

The place to go is your Buick dealer's—and if you want to travel like fortune's favorite, the time to sign on the dotted line is now!

Pvt. Williamson Serves In Japan

With the Eighth Army in Kobe, Japan—Participating in the combat effectiveness program at Kobe Base, Japan, is Private Clarence A. Williamson, 513 Sandusky, Jacksonville, Ill., a member of the 73rd Ordnance Base Depot.

While the primary mission of Kobe Base is to furnish supplies to troops of southern Japan, military training is also an important part of everyday life. Weapon firing to acquire proficiency in arms is a basic requirement of every soldier.

Included in the weekly training program are the Chaplain's Hour and Troop Information program, covering a wide range of subjects intended to encourage the development of moral responsibility and to keep the soldier abreast of current events.

Emphasis is placed on personal appearance and military courtesy. High standards of discipline are necessary for the success of our occupation in Japan as well as in battle.

Lack Of Community Chest Funds Threat To Several Agencies

A total of $36,684 has been reported to Community Chest headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce office as of December 3, according to a report issued Tuesday. This report was given at a joint meeting of campaign leaders and the executive committee of the Morgan County Community Chest.

There is known to be better than a thousand dollars still in the hands of solicitors, which for one reason or another has not yet been reported to Community Chest headquarters and which would bring the total somewhere in the neighborhood of $38,000. Campaign personnel agreed Sunday that every effort should be made during the next week to gather in these reports and bring the campaign up to date.

Community Chest president, W. O. Randall, pointed out that this is a very serious situation and might possibly affect the programs of the various local agencies.

"As the report stands now, the agencies will have to operate on approximately 85% of their budgets," Mr. Randall stated, "and this can mean only one thing and that is that some of the worthwhile programs will have to be dropped during the coming year."

Although it was impossible to determine Sunday what the local agencies might do to operate within their budgets, it was pointed out that there is a good possibility that the YMCA may have to drop its summer program. Also mentioned as a possible loss to the community are the Girl Scout Day Camp, Boy Scout camping program and other popular projects. The Salvation Army and the Illinois Children's Home and Aid both would have difficulty meeting community needs with funds now available.

Believes Public Will Rally

Dr. Robert Hartman, general chairman of the campaign, emphasized Mr. Randall's comments when he pointed out that he believed the people of this community would rally behind a move to raise additional funds if they knew how serious the situation had become.

"It has been virtually impossible during this busy season of the year to canvas every area in the County," Dr. Hartman stated. "I am sure that there are many people who have not yet contributed who would make generous gifts if they realized the seriousness of the situation. Not only would this include people who had not yet given but others who might wish to substantially increase their contributions to help keep our local agencies functioning effectively. Our campaign committee will take steps immediately to clean up every possible portion of the campaign in an effort to reach our goal of $45,000."

Community Chest headquarters continue to remain open in Room 205, Gibson Building where reports and contributions may be taken between 9 and 5 p. m. daily.

I. C. Has Annual Christmas Chapel Service Tuesday

The annual Christmas chapel service of Illinois college was held Tuesday morning in Jones chapel. The program was planned and conducted by students.

Miss Edwina Johnston, a senior from Washington, Ill., officiated at the service and read the scripture. Miss Barbara Stern, mezzo soprano and a freshman from Jacksonville, was soloist with the college choir. The selection was "Beautiful Savior." The choir also sang Scheidt's "Oh Jesu So Sweet."

Charles Covey, freshman from Jacksonville, played a violin solo. Schubert's "Ave Maria." He was accompanied by Miss Jean Patterson, a junior from Winchester, who also played the organ prelude and postlude.

Later in the program Covey joined Prof. Joachim Stenzel of the college faculty in a violin duet, the allegro from the "Concerto for Two Violins" by Antonio Vivaldi. They were accompanied on the piano by Noel Housley, special student, Jacksonville.

The brass quartet was heard in the traditional carol "We Three Kings," and a special group from the choir presented "Cradle Song of the Shepherds" by Glatz Folk.

Chaplain Daniel E. Kerr of the college gave the prayer and spoke briefly on "A Christmas Thought."

Faces Charge Of Drunken Driving; Furnishes Bond

Leonard Devlin, 29 year old Jacksonville man, was released under $2,000 bond Tuesday, and will be arraigned Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in county court on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

Devlin was arrested Sunday night by Deputies Edlen and Roach, and taken to the county jail. An information was filed Monday in county court by State's Attorney Hall. The defendant has been in court on charges of a similar nature. Court records show that on June 17, 1948, Devlin pleaded guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of a traffic accident, in which Willis Haney of this city was killed. Devlin was sentenced to eight months at the Illinois State Farm, and fined, in connection with the case last year.

There are no close survivors. The body is at the Simpson Funeral Home in Carrollton, where the rosary will be said at 8 p. m. Tuesday. Burial will be held Wednesday at 9 a. m. at St. John's Catholic church. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery.

Bound Over On Larceny Charge

Oliver Jackson, 37-year-old man from Springfield, is held in the Morgan county jail to await grand jury action on a charge of grand larceny. Jackson is accused of stealing $83 from Mabel Brannum of this city, who made complaint to county officers. The defendant at first denied the charge, but later made a complete confession, according to Sheriff Bourn, who with other officers questioned him at the jail. Jackson waived preliminary examination when arraigned in the court of Justice C. S. Smith and was bound over to the grand jury under bond, which has not been furnished.

Television receivers with metal cabinets have appeared on the market.

WEAK TONE IN CHICAGO GRAINS

Chicago, Dec. 6.—(P)—Grains developed a weak tone at the board of trade today, influenced by more liberal country offerings, and lack of commercial demand.

Soybeans were the softest spot in the day's trading with prices off around three cents at times. Some observers viewed the decline at a technical correction after an extended advance.

Soybeans and lard were influenced by a weaker cottonseed oil market and weaker hogs.

Receipts were: wheat 3 cars, corn 75, oats 36, rye none, barley 2, soybeans 8.

At the close 1 to 1 1/2 lower than yesterday's close, Dec. 6.20 1/4. Corn was 1 to 1 1/2 lower, December $1.29-29 1/4. Oats were unchanged to 1 1/2 lower, December 75 1/2. Rye was 2 to 3 cents lower, December $1.42 1/2. Soybeans were 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 lower, December $2.32-32 1/2. Lard was 15 to 22 cents a hundredweight lower, December $10.20.

An estimated 3,500 hogs remained unsold at the close of trading. The top butcher price for the day was $16 with most good and choice kinds ranging downward from that figure to $14.75. Sows generally found a $13 to $14 outlet but heavy types drifted as low as $11.75.

Good to low-choice steers made $29.50 to $36 and comparable heifers brought $29.50. Sausage bulls topped at $20 and vealers at $27, though most of the latter class sold from $23 to $26.

Lightweight lambs showed the most strength, being strong to 25 cents higher while the heavier furnished a weak to 25 cents lower market at $20.50 to $22.50. Choice clipped lambs topped at $23, and choice ewes $12.50.

Estimated receipts for sale included 19,000 hogs, 5,000 cattle, 500 calves, and 3,500 sheep.

Carrots and parsley are members of the same plant family.

New York, Dec. 6.—(P)—Selective demand for rails helped keep the stock market around its high for the year in a session of irregular price movements today.

Individual advances and declines were scattered through the entire list, even among the carriers. But few changes of as much as a point were registered.

Dealings fell below Monday's pace, approximating 1,500,000 shares for the day.

Corporate bond prices were mixed and changes narrow in quiet dealings.

Jacksonville, Routt, ISD Gain Wins Over Invading Fives

Bill Williams Hits For 19 Points, Leads Crimsons To 43-19 Win

Virde's Bulldogs left their bite at home last night.

Coach John Chapman's Jacksonville high school Crimsons experienced little trouble in moving their win string to three as they repulsed the Macoupin county invaders 43-19 on the David Prince boards.

The decision wasn't a particularly impressive one. At least it was not nearly as pleasing as the locals' Central conference inaugural against Feltshans of Springfield last Friday night. But, the JHS quietest was never pressed (Virde's closest challenge after things began moving when they pulled to within eight points of the leaders early in the third quarter) and the home aggression may well have been saving their heavy artillery for their coming tangle with Pittsfield here on Friday of this week.

Was Rough and Tumble

The combat made fans remember that the date of football's hibernation actually is not too far in the dim past. It was the rough and tumble type of game which gives onlookers plenty to yell about, but provides coaches with little opportunity to see in what manner their offenses and defenses are functioning.

The fast break was practically nonexistent, and neither team demonstrated consistent ability to penetrate the other's front line offense.

It was more a matter of shoot and rebound through most of the four quarters.

Jacksonville (mainly in the person of one Bill Williams in the fourth quarter) found the range from far out to ice what was already rapidly developing into a one-sided encounter.

Virde, seeking its second straight victory under the tutelage of a new mentor, formerly of Murray (Ky.)

State Teachers college, employed a zone defense during much of the fray. JHS stuck to its man-to-man first half slow.

The first quarter—in fact the entire first half—was slow. Both teams were cold. Despite the fact that they pounded the backboards with leather, they failed to provide scorekeep-ers with much action. Both clubs warmed up considerably in the third period, then Jacksonville moved away with a fourth-quarter spurt that put their scoring effort above the 40 mark.

Jacksonville's big gun once again was sophomore Williams, who racked up 19 points before leaving the dim via the four route late in the final chapter. He was followed by Jack

Chapman, who dropped in three long one handed buckets from near the sidelines, which with a free throw totalled seven, and Center Maylon

Baldwin, who came away with six points. Eight Crimsons joined in the scoring.

Virde put a veteran club on the floor, but the experience failed to impress the youthful organization of John Chapman. They wasted little effort in disposing of the Bulldogs.

Once again high school officials were forced to hang up the "standing room only" sign before the start of the preliminary contest. Hundreds were either turned away or just didn't bother to appear.

CHARLIE REDDY darted silently across the patio to the French doors. The handle turned with only a slight click and he pulled the door open an inch at a time. He stepped inside and drew the door closed. The room was dark, and Reddy identified a few shadowy furniture outlines and began to pick his way through them, praying that he wouldn't collide with an unremembered footstool.

He reached the hall and turned to the left, feeling ahead of him for the door to the studio. He found the knob and turned it. Locked! Anxiously, his fingers fumbled downward. There was a key in the lock! Before turning it, he stood tense, listening for even the slightest stir from the remainder of the house.

Slowly and delicately, he turned the key and opened the door. He took out his flashlight, directed its beam to the floor and stepped cautiously only where the small circle of light showed uncluttered space. Reaching the storage end of the studio, he beamed his flash over the shelves containing rows of glazed and bisque-fired pieces. Tom had said he hadn't been doing any work lately, which would mean that the two peculiar-looking female figures might still be unglazed. Concentrating on the chalky bisque pieces, he inspected the contents of the top shelf and worked down: vases, jugs, three tigers, two Balinese busts, more vases. Reddy snapped off his light in disgust and stood in the darkness wondering what had become of the two sorrowing women.

He could recall exactly how the pieces looked: About 12 inches high, about eight inches at the base, the femininity of the figures just barely suggested by the drapery around the lower body, an egg-like head, with one rather gross arm bent around it resting on what might be the knees. The whole piece had the bulky block-like quality of an Epstein sculpture. Reddy remembered that he had thought the things were pretty good, pretty well-done. In spite of their vague outlines, he had immediately concluded that they represented a pair of weeping women.

A weeping woman! Why hadn't he thought of the connection before? His weariness and puzzlement disappeared instantly. He snapped on his light again and directed its beam scorchingly around the room. He had to find those figures!

Tom's modeling bench was over there in the corner. Tools, stained rags, a segmented mold. Up above was a broad shelf, and on it—Reddy stepped closer excitedly—it was a blocklike figurine, light reflecting from its satiny blue glaze. One of the weeping women!

Reddy dropped his flash on the bench and reached up both hands for the figurine. Reddy picked it up, balancing it with great care on the palm of one hand. With the thumb and middle finger of his other hand, he thumped it for what would be the answer to whether he was here on a wild goose chase.

THE pottery gave a low, clear ringing sound. An expression of intense disappointment spread over Reddy's face. He was about to return the figurine to the shelf when the lights in the studio snapped on.

He whirled around to face Tom O'Neill!

"It was my impression, Charlie, that you had left my house and gone home. I should've asked you if you'd like to come out and visit my workshop. I'm a very poor host, leaving my guest to stumble around out here by himself without any lights." He advanced slowly to the work bench, "Do you like the blue figurine?"

Consider Formation Of Heart Association In This Community

Preliminary plans for the organization of the Morgan County Heart Association were formulated at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at State Street Presbyterian church. A future meeting was decided upon, at which time more definite arrangements will be made. All clubs and organizations in the community are urged to send representatives to this meeting.

Tuesday's session was presided over by Harlan Williamson, temporary chairman. The principal speaker was Dr. Edward Cannady, of East St. Louis, education chairman of the Illinois Heart association.

Dr. Cannady imparted some very important statistical information, showing what a widespread threat heart disease actually is. He stated that one of every three deaths in all age groups is caused by heart disease and in the over-45 age group, heart disease is responsible for more than half of all deaths.

According to Dr. Cannady, there are 21 different types of heart disease. The three leading types, which are responsible for 90% of all heart disease deaths, are rheumatic, hypertensive and arteriosclerotic.

Dr. Cannady spoke of the progress which has been made in diagnosing and treating heart ailments and maintained that any heart sufferer could lead a normal life, by exercising a bit of common sense and taking things in moderation.

A film, entitled "Be Your Age," was then shown. Produced by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, in cooperation with the American Heart association, the film dealt with the readjustment to be made after heart disease presents itself.

Dr. Cannady made a few remarks after the film, stressing the importance of research made possible through contributions to the Heart association.

Dr. Garm Norbury was then introduced. He presented the doctors' viewpoint concerning organizations of this type, stating that they were enthusiastically in favor of such movements. Preceding Dr. Cannady's address, Dr. Friedrich Engelbach pledged the support of the Morgan County Medical society to the proposed organization.

A brief resume of the history of the movement in Illinois was given by Mrs. Marquette Ingram, of Springfield, executive secretary of the state association.

Other speakers included Dr. Frederick Pink, medical director at Franklin Life Insurance company in Springfield and chairman of the Sangamon County Chapter of the association, and Dr. Emmett F. Pearson of Springfield, a member of the board of directors.

The meeting was held in connection with a regional clinic for physicians, which took place at the Dunlap hotel. Registration at the clinic was handled by Mrs. W. P. Bailey, Mrs. Harry Lee Hall and Mrs. William Winchester.

Arrangements for the meeting were in the charge of Dr. W. H. Newcomb. Organizations represented included Home Bureau, B.P.W.C., W.C.T.U., Optimist club and the Morgan County Garden club.

Meredosia Group Presents Various Yuletide Phases

Meredosia—A lesson on "A Little Child Shall Lead Them" was presented at the December meeting of the W.S.C.S. Thursday afternoon at the church, following a bountiful potluck dinner. The discussion on celebrations of the holiday was given by Mrs. Dewey Lacey, and Mrs. Robert Breen discussed the Yuletide program as it is carried out in India, Korea, Burma and various other points.

The leader told of Christmas gifts as given in a number of places and lands, and Mrs. Beulah Naylor told of the ways our college and school boys and girls help to make a "White Christmas" for the needy people of the world.

The meeting was opened by singing "O Come, All Ye Faithful." The devotional leader, Mrs. Robert Lankin, then read the Christmas story as recorded in the second chapter of Luke, and all sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

The devotional period ended with the Lord's Prayer and singing of "Joy to the World." The business session was in charge of the president, Mrs. Luther Rice. Mrs. Robert Breen reported on some of the highlights of the talk given by Mrs. Applebee at a Chapin W.S.C.S. tea, which 11 members of the Meredosia society attended.

There were 16 members present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Lathrop.

A PLAQUE FOR FRANKLIN HOMEMAKERS

Miss Marilyn Chance proudly holds the Tri-County Bankers' association plaque given to her and her excellent record.

In making the award, Mr. Peters observed that "the country bankers of this area have long realized the value of vocational training in agriculture and home economics, but it's only been in the last two years that we've decided to do something about recognizing the worth of F.F.A. and F.H.A."

Sound vocational training makes better customers for us, more prosperity for our community," he continued.

Last year Franklin chapter, F.F.A., won the Bankers' plaque, but they lost it to Waverly. Tallula girls were the first winners of the F.H.A. plaque.

Miss Chance is not only the president of the "Homemakers" chapter, but she was also chosen sectional president when the 11 departments of this area convened early this fall.

Arthur Keating Denied Leadership Of Nesco Factory

Chicago, Dec. 6—(AP)—A fight by Arthur Keating, 55-year-old Chicago manufacturer for control of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., Milwaukee, was set back sharply today at a Nesco board meeting.

Keating's bid for presidency of the Milwaukee firm was rejected at a special board meeting. The board named Stevens A. Bennett, a director of the firm since April this year, to succeed Willard H. Sahloff as president.

Sahloff's resignation as president and board member were accepted by the board. He will become an executive of General Electric Co. William H. Saunders, Jr., of New Orleans, was elected to fill the board vacancy.

Keating acknowledged in a statement that the election represented a "temporary" victory for Alfred J. Kleckhefer, chairman. He said, however, he intends to wage a proxy campaign to oust Kleckhefer, James Marshall and other members of the board who were aligned with them.

Nesco's top management was stirred a week ago by Keating's charges of mismanagement. Keating, also a director, is the largest single stockholder, controlling 66,400 of 459,000 outstanding common shares. There are 1,200 stockholders.

AMA Rallies To Fight 'Socialized Medicine' In U.S.

Washington, Dec. 6—(AP)—The American Medical Association was told today that its opponents in its fight against "socialized medicine" have given ground—but that the decisive battle remains to be fought in 1950.

Dr. Elmer L. Henderson of Louisville, Ky., president-elect of the world's largest organization of doctors, said "hundreds" of non-medical groups have rallied to the AMA's banner in its struggle against President Truman's proposal for federalized compulsory sickness insurance.

To help finance the campaign, a committee report showed, $2,550,000 has been collected in "voluntary" assessments of $25 each from a large number of doctors in the AMA's total membership.

The AMA said a great many physicians, such as internists, retired doctors and those not having full-time positions "were not expected to make a voluntary contribution to the campaign."

The organization said 80 per cent of those expected to contribute had done so.

Today Is Eighth Anniversary Of Pearl Harbor

Washington, Dec. 6—(AP)—A quiet anniversary of the day which President Roosevelt said would "live in infamy" will be observed tomorrow.

The date was Dec. 7, 1941.

At 7:55 a.m. on that quiet Sunday morning eight years ago, 150 planes marked with the blood-red rising sun emblem of Japan flew without warning over Pearl Harbor in the isle of Oahu, Hawaii, and rained down tons of bombs upon the bulk of America's Pacific fleet.

In the chaos of boiling black smoke and flame, a U.S. Navy chaplain "praised the Lord and passed the ammunition" in the gallant struggle to beat off the attackers.

An American battleship captain, his stomach ripped by flying steel, fell but refused to be carried to safety. He died on his flaming bridge.

By 9:55, the last of the enemy sky raiders had vanished. Behind them, they left a scene of incredible devastation. Eight of this country's 17 battleships lay wrecked in the harbor. Other, less mighty craft, were sunk or reduced to junkpiles of twisted metal.

Franklin—The Franklin Businessmen's club met at the office of the Kenna Insurance agency Monday evening to consider the purchase of fire fighting equipment and the organization of a fire district. Representatives from two Springfield firms were present to estimate the cost and give advice.

The Businessmen decided to erect a Christmas tree at the post office corner the week before Christmas and have a program and treats for all the children on Christmas eve around the tree. A small tree will be set up at the Legion Hall, and if the weather is bad the program and distribution of candy will be there.

There will be a vespers service Sunday afternoon, Dec. 18, for the entire community. It will be held at the high school in care of the music department, under the direction of Miss Peggy Flynn.

The Alexander grade school has finished a new garage which will hold four buses. It is one of the finest in this part of the country.

Mrs. M. R. Range Speaks On Bells At Tuesday Club

Mrs. M. R. Range presented a program on "Bells" at the annual Christmas meeting and party of the Tuesday club at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Clarence Rataichak, 1335 W. Lafayette avenue. A gift exchange took place, and during the social hour refreshments were served in keeping with the season.

Mrs. Charles Gibson, president, opened the meeting. Mrs. F. F. Alridge of Durham, N. C., was a guest.

Mrs. Range, introduced by program chairman Mrs. Mary Kitner, told the group that years ago it was believed that the metal of bells was magic. She enumerated the uses of bells and the different kinds, and described the famous carillons in the Riverside Church in New York City and at the Bird sanctuary, the Bok singing tower in Florida.

The speaker discussed change ringing and hand ringing and mentioned different collections. She displayed her own, which included temple bells, animal bells, some of crystal and some from other countries.

Suspended Cop Is Acquitted Of Death Of Tavern Owner

Chicago, Dec. 6—(AP)—A suspended policeman was acquitted today of a murder charge in the fatal shooting of a tavern owner.

The ex-cop is John O'Connell, 34. He testified he acted in self defense in firing five shots which killed Dennis Mullins, 27, in Mullins' tavern at 314 South Cicero avenue last May 8.

O'Connell told the criminal jury he purposely fired the gun several times to empty it before it could be taken from him in a fight in which he was engaged while off duty.

He said the fight developed from his investigation of an alleged rape in the vicinity. The state contended he was intoxicated at the time. O'Connell was suspended after the shooting.

New Yuletide Toys Equipped With All Sorts Of Noises

New York, Dec. 6—(AP)—It's hard to figure out a new top to give a kid for Christmas, but this year a lot of playthings have new sound effects to add to the joyful noise of Yuletide.

There's a telephone, for instance. You pick it up and say "hello," and then the telephone says "hello." From then on, of course, it's a one-way conversation unless the conversations consists of "hello," (Gong Bell Manufacturing Co., East Hampton, Conn.).

Then there is a talking doll. Touch her in the right place, and she keeps saying: "Pick me up mama!" until the record inside runs down. Just like a real child, except children seldom run down. (J. L. Schilling Co., New York).

Truman Calls Off All Weight Losing Bets With Aides

Key West, Fla., Dec. 6—(AP)—President Truman bulged at the waistline today while his temporary "White House" bulged with advisors working on the next phase of his "fair deal" strategy.

The chief executive, tipping the scales at 177 pounds, called off all bets with two of his even stouter aides growing out of a pre-Thanksgiving weight-reducing contest.

The contest was officially declared a "dead heat" when it was discovered each of the trio had dropped about three or four pounds of "dead weight."

It started at Charlottesville, Va., early in November when the chief executive decided Major General Harry H. Vaughan, army aide, and Brig. General Wallace H. Graham, president physician, were so big he couldn't see around them in the White House car. Reportedly, each side weighed around 220 pounds then. Mr. Truman a generous 180.

The idea was that Mr. Truman had to get down to 175 by Thanksgiving—he weighed 167 when he entered the White House in 1945—his aides to 200, each to pay $1 (some reports had it $10) for each pound short of the goal.

Whistler Takes His Wife Away

Newark, N.J., Dec. 6—(AP)—The man would come beneath the window and whistle.

The tune was always "Poor Buttermilk."

It was the signal, 38-year-old George J. Lower said, for his wife, Elizabeth, 28, to depart hastily from their home.

The last time the man whistled, Lower's wife left for good, the Newark man told Superior Court Judge Thomas Schettino yesterday.

Lower was awarded a divorce on grounds of desertion.

Legion Plans Dinner, Initiation, Donates To Various Causes

An initiation for new members and an "Early Bird Dinner" for those who paid their dues before Armistice Day are being planned by the American Legion, Post No. 279, which met Tuesday evening at the Legion Home. Commander William Cochran presided. Offerings for hospitalized veterans in the area are being prepared, and various donations were voted.

Initiation team recently organized would formally induct about a dozen members at the next regular meeting, Tuesday, Jan. 3, 1950, while the others who have not yet gone through the ceremony would participate as onlookers.

Alvarez Appointed Chairman
Russell Alvarez was appointed chairman of the committee for the "Early Bird Dinner," which William Cochran scheduled for Jan. 5.

George Vasconcellos, chairman of the committee to provide Christmas treats for all veterans in local hospitals, reported that most of the supplies had been purchased. He also called attention to the plea for funds made by the 20th district child welfare chairman, Iona Hart of Roodhouse, to obtain holiday gifts for the children housed in Bell Cottage in the soldiers' and sailors' school at Normal. The district had the responsibility of caring for such treats for these children, of whom there are about 15.

The group voted to give $50 to the Community Chest, $15 to the children of Bell Cottage, and a sum equal to that given last year to Father Flanagan's Boys' Home. The organization will also purchase a Morgan county T. B. bond.
